Kashyap, here is what is actually happening

- Shopify is already in the room
Shopify appears in top companies and reaction lists, so the content is reaching the platform ecosystem.
- Premium retail is the ICP bridge
Luxury retail and brand-strategy viewers connect Kashyap's work to higher-ticket consumer brands.
- AI commerce is emerging
AI stylist and technical viewers are watching posts about product assets, product data and trust.
- Founder-led proof is creating credibility
The best-performing posts make SimplSo feel like an earned agency, not a service menu.

Strategic Audience Read

How to shape July content

- Own premium Shopify conversion

The strongest ICP is not every Shopify store. It is premium and scaling brands where design quality has to convert.

- Speak to founders, not only marketers

The best angles should name founder anxieties: expensive redesigns, hidden product data, AI shortcuts, unclear conversion leaks.

- Use India-to-global design authority

The Indian design talent post suggests Kashyap can own a larger narrative: Indian taste and craft are global e-commerce advantages.

- Turn viewers into sales opportunities

When Shopify founders, retail marketers or AI-commerce operators view the profile, they should be captured as warm relationship opportunities.
